

Blenheim

WORK ETHIC | RESILIENCE | INNOVATION | IMPROVEMENT

Alayna has an outstanding amplitude for education, her passions inside and outside the classroom shape her views on how ideas in lessons and as a member of the 6th Form Student Leadership Team. These skills ensures that she has strong cultural capital and makes a positive impact on her work as well as her peers.

Furthermore, as a scholar her enthusiasm and attention to detail inspires discussion and thought-provoking snippets of analysis, which are engaging to listen to. Alayna works hard consistently to perfect her craft across all her subjects, consciously applying feedback to develop her skills and transform her critical thinking into a succinct academic written analysis. Which makes her an outstanding candidate for any academic course.

What is impressive about Alayna, is she is a live document, both academically and personally; she consistently strives to find ways to become the best version of herself. What is more impressive, she changes, develops and grows after each marking cycle for her subjects, across the board her work improves in depth and quality. It is exciting to see the quality of her work blossom as she makes her way through her studies.

As her Head of 6th Form, it is these attributes that define Alayna as an exceptional student, person and potential candidate for your course and college. She is an inspiration and role model to many, and as a school, we are very proud of who she is and believe her future will be full of success.

Miss A. Arnsperg