

Character Reference for Bella Broad

This reference has been provided in a personal capacity. The opinions and observations expressed are solely my own and are not intended to represent nor should they be interpreted as representing the official views of Braunton Academy, its staff, leadership team or trustees.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am delighted to provide this character reference for Bella Broad, who attended

Braunton Academy from 2019 to 2025.

Throughout her time at Braunton Academy, Bella consistently demonstrated exceptional character, commitment, and determination in all aspects of school life. She was an excellent student who approached her studies with a positive attitude and a strong work ethic. Bella showed natural leadership qualities, taking initiative when opportunities arose and contributing positively to the school community.

Academically, Bella was a diligent and dedicated student who approached her studies with enthusiasm and resilience. She excelled in her GCSE examinations, reflecting not only her ability but also her determination to continually improve and achieve her very best. Her maturity, organisation and commitment to learning were evident throughout her school career.

Beyond the classroom, Bella made a significant contribution to the sporting life of the Academy. She was a committed and influential member of our Girls' Football, Boys' Football and Athletics teams, demonstrating outstanding dedication over many years. Her leadership, teamwork and competitive spirit played a key role in the success of these teams at local, regional and national levels. Bella consistently represented the Academy with pride, integrity and professionalism, and her positive influence on teammates was invaluable.

Bella was always polite, respectful, approachable and displayed excellent interpersonal skills. She embraced opportunities, contributed positively to the wider school community and showed resilience when faced with challenges. Her ability to balance academic achievement with an extensive commitment to sport both in and out of school was a testament to her excellent character and strong sense of responsibility.

I have no doubt that Bella will continue to achieve great success in her future pursuits and make a positive contribution to any College, University, team or community of which she becomes a part.

I wholeheartedly recommend Bella and am confident that she will be an asset wherever her future takes her.

Yours faithfully,

Jamie Frickleton
