To whom it may concern,

Re: Timi Anifalaje Recommendation Letter

I am very pleased to recommend Timi to you as someone who commits wholeheartedly to life at Rossall.

Timi joined Rossall on a football scholarship in September 2024 and has been an integral member of our community since. Bringing great humour and personality to everything he does, he combines people skills with a dedication to his studies and his sport. Football is his passion and future: his coaches comment on his determination, his willingness to accept feedback, and his leadership qualities. This is something we have seen in the boarding house where he is a well-respected member of our very international and diverse community.

In the classroom, he has been resolute and shown huge progress over the past two years. He has shown what it means to take yourself seriously and everything he does is about maximising his outcomes. This was shown through his decision to study Business alongside the BTEC in Sport - a reflection of his personal ambition.

On a personal level, I have thoroughly enjoyed working with Timi and I know that we are only part way through his journey. He will thrive in an environment where he feels truly at home and I know he will commit without hesitation to Higher Education.

You would be acquiring a fine young man who has still so much to gain from being pushed. I hope you will take his application seriously. He comes highly recommended.

Yours sincerely,

Mr N Crombie
