To whom it may concern,

I am writing to recommend the character and attitude of Adonnis Essel-Effum. I have been Adonnis' Sixth Form tutor at All Saints Academy, Cheltenham for two years, and during that time found him to be consistently reliable, punctual and mature. He is community-minded and is happy to work for the good of others. Adonnis is also extremely hard-working and driven, as evidenced by his decision to frequently stay late after the working day to continue to work on his A-level studies, for which he was rightly rewarded with good outcomes.

Adonnis would be an excellent addition to any team he joins: he is focused, has great listening and communication skills and can lead in group activities. He is good-humoured, thoughtful and resilient, and with these characteristics will thrive in any environment he finds himself in. He is a fine young man whom I can recommend unreservedly.

Yours faithfully,
